Madrid, July 1, N. S.

HIS Catholick Majesty is recovered of a late Indisposition, and has again appeared in Publick. Since last Week he goes every Afternoon to the Pardo, where he diverts himself with Shooting. On the 24th past a Courier arrived here from Holland by the Way of Paris, he brought Dispatches for this Court, with the News of the Death of the Marquess de St. Philippe, who it is said will be succeeded in that Embassy by the Marquess de Monteleon. On the 25th past the Marquess de Castelar, Secretary at War, had a Meeting at his Office with the President and Super Intendant of the Finances, the Treasurer, and the Marquess de la Paz, for finding out proper Funds for the Expences of the Army, which is in grant Want of Money, and the King's Treasury very much exhausted. The Duke of Ripperda continues in his Confinement at the Castle of Segovia; though several Reports have been lately spread that his Liberty has been granted, and that he is to return hither very soon. Count Konigsegg, the Emperour's Minister here, came this Morning to Town from his Country-House at Aquadilla, and after having had an Audience of their Catholick Majesties, went back in the Evening. The Marquess de Risbourg, Captain-General of Catalonia, being dangerously ill at Barcelona, so as not to be able to attend the Affairs of his Government, General Montemar, who three Years since commanded the Troops in that Province, has received Orders to repair thither forthwith to take the Command upon him again; and accordingly he will set out in a Day or two. Letters from Cadiz of the 25th past relate, that the three Advice-Boats formerly mentioned had set Sail, one on the 23d past for the Havana, and the other two on the 25th for Cartagena and Vera Cruz; that another is getting ready to go to Buenos Ayres; and that on the 23d past a Number of Marines and Seamen went on board three Merchant Ships and two little Vessels which were hired to carry the said Men to St. Andero, in order to serve in the three Men of War newly built there; they also carried with them Provisions for victualling the said Men of War for five Months. The two Biscay Men of War which are said to be bound for the West-Indies, still remain in the Bay of Cadiz. Letters from Malaga of the 25th past advise, that Orders from Court were come thither for reviewing the Fortifications of all that Coast, and for giving an immediate Account of the Repairs they want, in order to their being put into a good Posture of Defence; and accordingly Engineers were sent on that Service: That four Spanish Gallies were gone to Ceuta, in order, as 'twas said, to carry a Regiment of Foot from thence to reinforce the Garrison of Cadiz: That Orders were sent for four Regiments of Horse and Dragoons to march to the Island of Lyons to encamp there; and that the Regiment of Horse of Andalusia, quartered near Malaga, had also received Orders to be in a Readiness to march.

Hague, July 19, N. S. The King of Prussia left Cleves last Wednesday Night, and passed Yesterday through Arnheim in his Way to Amsterdam, where it is supposed he arrived last Night or this Morning: His Majesty is expected here in a Day or two: The Prince Royal his Son, was to set out from Cleves this Morning, to follow his Majesty.

These are to give Notice, that the Post will go every Night (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge, and from Tunbridge-Wells to London, from Wednesday the 13*th of this Instant July, during the Summer-Season, as usual.*
